Hi Don - everything good, thank you for asking. Hope all is well with you and that you had a great weekend!

Yes - the project is moving forward. I took some pictures of the concerns last week and I am following up with LAWA today to establish next steps. I should have more information by the end of the week as to whether or not I may need help; will let you know by then if that's okay?

Hi Omar, how are you? Hope all is well. Have you been able to get the sign refurbishment process moving? How can we help?

Thanks...
